

Registered Psychologist

Cornerstone Counselling is looking for a dedicated Registered Psychologist to join our team.

Who We Are

Cornerstone Counselling is an inclusive, faith-based, not-for-profit agency with a 45-year history of offering compassion, support, and healing to people from all walks of life. We believe that everyone who needs help, irrespective of faith, race, gender, lifestyle, or financial ability should have access to mental health care. Our diverse team of accredited professionals provides a wide range of mental health services for individuals, couples, families, teens, and children as young as four years old.

Today, we are proud to recognize that our work has touched as many as 90,000 lives over our history. Our client base is diverse, and we employ counsellors who use many different evidence-based modalities in their work. If you enjoy a collaborative work culture, apply to join our team today!

What You Will Bring to the Role:

- Alignment with our core values, mission, and community service orientation.
- Master's degree or Ph.D. in Counselling Psychology and have a registration in good standing with the College of Alberta Psychologists.
- A minimum of four years of experience.
- Experience working with individuals experiencing emotional distress, addictions, trauma, violence and abuse, relationship issues, coping & behavioral issues, loss & grief, among others.
- Experience working with Indigenous clients is an asset.
- An interest in working with couples and teens is an asset.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively within a team environment.
- Have professional liability insurance.
- Must be able to work a minimum of 12 clinical hours per week.
- Outstanding verbal and written communication skills.
- Strong problem solving, decision-making skills and analytical skills.
- Great attention to detail with strong organizational skills.
- Strong computer skills.
- Excellent sound judgment skills.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced challenging environment.

- Must be able to work weekday hours Monday through Friday with some evening hours. Saturday hours are also available.

What We Will Offer You:

- The opportunity to join an organization with a 45-year history of providing accessible mental health services to people in the Edmonton area.
- Well-established and growing client base.
- Positive corporate culture founded on respect, trust, and engagement.
- Extensive marketing program.
- Supportive administrative team.
- Fully furnished office spaces and play therapy room.
- Flexible work schedules.
- Competitive salary and benefits packages.
- Training allowances provided annually.

How to Apply:

Interested and qualified applicants can send their cover letter and resume to Cornerstone Counselling's Executive Director – Sheila Stauffer at s.stauffer@cornerstonecounselling.com.